

Restatue Thrill

Col Zachary “Thrill” Laird was a distinguished A-10 pilot, Weapons School graduate, and commander of the 6th Combat Training Squadron who saved countless American lives. Decorated with a Bronze Star and multiple Air Medals, Col Laird embodied servant leadership and dedicated his career to protecting the soldier on the ground. He passed away from service-related cancer on May 2, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of selflessness, mentorship, and excellence. The impact Thrill had on our country and the people he served with deserves to be honored and remembered.

Help Build a 7' Statue of an American Hero.

Donate Today.

Visit Restatue.org to donate through venmo if preferred.

Restatue America is a 100% volunteer run 501c3 dedicated to honoring the legacy and contributions of GWOT Veterans. Your donation is tax-deductible within the guidelines of U.S. law.